Neon Spring (Neona pavasaris), dir. Matīss Kaža, 102', Latvia, 2022

With strobe lights and a thumping techno soundtrack, "Neon Spring" chronicles two months in the life of Laine, a college girl from a suburb in Latvia. As Laine's father distances himself from his crumbling marriage and family, Laine is unable to cope with the separation. She discovers the edgy Riga party scene where she falls in love with seasoned raver Gunda. Going from rave to rave, the girls journey into a drug-fuelled underworld of anarchy, freedom and exploration.
